VERSE 1

C♯
A great eagle with wings so wide
D♯m
Came down to Lebanon's pride
C♯
Took the top of the cedar tree
D♯m
Carried it to a foreign see
C♯
Planted it in merchant soil
D♯m
Beside the water, low and toil
C♯
It grew a vine with branches spread
D♯m
Its roots reached out as it fed

VERSE 2

C♯
But another eagle stood nearby
D♯m
With thick and heavy plumage dry
C♯
The vine bent its roots toward him
D♯m
Seeking water in his rim
C♯
It had good soil and rain
D♯m
To bear fruit without vain strain
C♯
But it turned to a second king
D♯m
And broke the sacred, holy thing

CHORUS

C♯
I will take a sprig from the top
D♯m
From the lofty cedar's crop
C♯
And plant it on a high mountain
D♯m
Where the birds in shade are wanting
C♯
It will become a majestic tree
D♯m
Where all the birds shall be

VERSE 3

C♯
The king of Babylon came strong
D♯m
Took the crown and led it along
C♯
Made a covenant with the prince
D♯m
Swore an oath for the defense
C♯
But he rebelled and sent envoys
D♯m
To Egypt for horses and toys
C♯
He broke the oath and despised the vow
D♯m
In Babylon he shall now bow

CHORUS

C♯
I will take a sprig from the top
D♯m
From the lofty cedar's crop
C♯
And plant it on a high mountain
D♯m
Where the birds in shade are wanting
C♯
It will become a majestic tree
D♯m
Where all the birds shall be

BRIDGE

C♯
I bring down the high and lift the low
D♯m
I make the dry and dead tree grow
C♯
All the trees of the field will know
D♯m
That I, the Lord, am the power

OUTRO

C♯
I, the Lord, have spoken and will do
D♯m
On the height of the land, it is true
