Trumpets, Jars and Torches

Judges 6:11–16; 6:36–40; 7:2–7; 7:16–22

Key C · 119 BPM · 4/4

INTRO

| C | C | F G | C |
| F G C |

VERSE 1

F C
Gideon was hiding, threshing wheat where none could see
F C Dm G
Scared of all the Midianites, like locusts on the trees
F G Em Am
Then an angel sat beneath the oak and said to him
F G C
The LORD is with you, mighty warrior
F C
Who, me? said Gideon, I am the least of all
F C G
But God said, I will be with you, and God is never small

CHORUS

C
Blow your trumpet, toot toot toot
F C
Smash your jar, crash crash crash
Hold your torch up shining bright
Dm G
A sword for the LORD and for Gideon
F G Em Am
God can win with just a few
F G C F G
When we trust him, me and you

VERSE 2

C F C
Gideon was nervous, so he laid a woolly fleece
F C Dm G
On the threshing floor at night and said, God, show me please
F G Em Am
In the morning, wet fleece, and the ground was dry all round
F G C
Next night, dry fleece, and dew on all the ground

VERSE 3

F C
Thir-ty-two thousand soldiers came to stand at Gideon's side
F C Dm G
Too many, said the LORD, or they will boast in pride
F G Em Am
Down to ten thousand, then down to the stream they went
F G
Three hundred lapped the water, and those were the ones God

CHORUS

Blow your trumpet, toot toot toot
F C
Smash your jar, crash crash crash
Hold your torch up shining bright
Dm G
A sword for the LORD and for Gideon
F G Em Am
God can win with just a few
F G C F
When we trust him, me and you

BRIDGE

G C F C
One hundred, two hundred, three hundred men
Dm G
All around the camp in the dark night
F G Em Am
Ready, steady, blow, smash, shine
F G C
And the LORD made it right

OUTRO

| C | F G | C | F G C |
| C |