E♭
Three months passed on the island shore
B♭ Cm
We put to sea in Alexandria's hold
E♭
Twin Brothers on the bow we saw
B♭ Cm
Syracuse and Rhegium on the road
E♭
Puteoli brothers welcomed us home
B♭ Cm
Seven days we stayed before we roam
E♭
To Rome where the Forum of Appius stood
B♭ Cm
Paul saw them and thanked God for his blood

PRE-CHORUS

A♭ E♭
He was allowed to live with his guard
B♭ Cm
Three days later the leaders came to the yard
A♭ E♭
He said I did nothing against our fathers
B♭ G
Yet I was handed over to Caesar's doors

CHORUS

Cm E♭
I am wearing this chain for the hope of Israel
B♭ Cm
Laying out the kingdom of God before us
E♭
From morning until evening he spoke the truth
B♭ G Cm
Convincing some while others remained in the booth

E♭
They had no letters from Judea to show
B♭ Cm
Nor bad reports from the brothers below
E♭
But they wanted to hear what he thought of the sect
B♭ Cm
Spoken against in every part of the net
E♭
So they set a day and came in crowds great
B♭ Cm
To his lodging where the light was late
E♭
From Moses and Prophets he tried to persuade
B♭ Cm
About Jesus with truth that they could not fade

PRE-CHORUS

A♭ E♭
Some were convinced by the words he had spoken
B♭ Cm
Others would not believe and the truth was broken
A♭ E♭
They disagreed and began to leave
B♭ G
With heated arguments in the heat

CHORUS

(repeat)

BRIDGE

A♭ E♭
The Holy Spirit spoke through Isaiah's pen
B♭ Cm
You will listen and listen but never understand
A♭ E♭
Hearts have grown dull and eyes are shut tight
B♭ Cm
So they may not see or hear the light
A♭ E♭ B♭
God's salvation is sent to the Gentiles now
Cm
And they will listen to the voice of the vow

OUTRO

A♭ E♭
Two whole years in his rented place
B♭ Cm
Proclaiming the kingdom with boldness and grace
A♭ E♭
Without hindrance he taught the Lord
B♭ G Cm
With complete boldness until the very end
