VERSE 1

King Belshazzar threw a party for a thousand of his lords G7

They drank the wine from the temple cups and laughed at the holy things

They praised the gods of silver and the gods of gold and stone Fm

Then a hand came out of nowhere and the laughter died alone G7 Cm

VERSE 2

The fingers wrote upon the plaster by the lampstand's light G7

The king's face turned to ashes and his knees knocked in the night Cm

No wise man in the city could read the words or tell Fm

So they called for the old exile, Daniel, who knew God well G7 Cm

CHORUS

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN

Fm

You have been weighed on the scales

And found too light G7

Weighed on the scales and found too light Cm

BRIDGE

God has numbered the days of your kingdom

Fm

And brought it to an end

Your kingdom has been divided G7

And given to the Medes and Persians Cm

CHORUS

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN

Fm

You have been weighed on the scales

And found too light G7

Weighed on the scales and found too light Cm Fm
