LORD my God, you are very great;

you are clothed in splendor and majesty,

VERSE 1

C B♭ Dm
wrapped in light as with a robe, stretching out the heavens like a tent.
C B♭
He lays the beams of his upper rooms on the waters, makes the clouds his chariot, and rides on the wings of the wind.
B♭ C F B♭
He makes the winds his messengers, flames of fire his servants.
C Dm
He set the earth on its foundations;
B♭ C Dm
it shall never be shaken.

VERSE 2

C B♭
You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
Dm C B♭
the waters stood above the mountains.
Dm C
At your rebuke they fled;
F B♭
at the sound of your thunder they took to flight.
C Dm B♭
They rose over the mountains, they ran down into the valleys, to the place you appointed for them.
B♭ C Dm
You set a boundary they may not cross;
B♭ C Dm
never again will they cover the earth.

VERSE 3

B♭ C Dm
He sends the springs into the ravines;
B♭ C
they flow between the mountains.
Dm B♭ C
They give drink to every beast of the field;
Dm
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
B♭ C Dm B♭
Beside them the birds of the sky make their home;
C Dm
they sing among the branches.
B♭ C Dm B♭
He waters the mountains from his upper rooms;
C Dm
the earth is satisfied with the fruit of your work.

VERSE 4

B♭ C Dm C
He makes grass grow for the cattle and plants for people to cultivate, bringing forth bread from the earth,
Dm C B♭ Dm
and wine that gladdens the human heart, oil to make the face shine, and bread to sustain the heart.
Dm B♭ C Dm B♭
The trees of the LORD drink their fill, the cedars of Lebanon that he planted,
C
where the birds build their nests;
Dm B♭
the stork has her home in the fir trees.

VERSE 5

C Dm B♭ C
The high mountains belong to the wild goats;
Dm B♭ C Dm
the crags are a refuge for the rock badgers.
B♭ C Dm
He made the moon to mark the seasons;
B♭ C
the sun knows when to set.
Dm B♭ C Dm B♭
You bring darkness, and it is night, when all the beasts of the forest prowl.
C Dm B♭
The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God.

VERSE 6

C Dm B♭
The sun rises, and they steal away and lie down in their dens.
C Dm
C Dm B♭
Then people go out to their work, to their labor until evening.
C
How many are your works, LORD!
B♭ C Dm
In wisdom you made them all;
B♭ C
the earth is full of your creatures.
B♭ C Dm C
There is the sea, vast and wide, teeming with creatures beyond number, living things b

VERSE 7

Dm C B♭ Dm
There the ships move along, and Leviathan, which you formed to play in it.
C Dm B♭
All of them look to you to give them their food at the proper time.
C Dm B♭
C Dm
When you give it to them, they gather it up;
C Dm B♭
when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.
C Dm B♭
When you hide your face, they are terrified;
C Dm C Dm
when you take away their breath, they die and return to the dust.

VERSE 8

B♭ C Dm B♭ C Dm
When you send forth your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.
B♭ C Dm
May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
B♭ C Dm
may the LORD rejoice in his works —
B♭ C Dm B♭ C Dm
he who looks at the earth, and it trembles, who touches the mountains, and they smok
B♭ C Dm
I will sing to the LORD all my life;
B♭ C Dm C Dm
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

VERSE 9

B♭ C Dm
May my meditation please him;
B♭ C Dm
I will rejoice in the LORD.
B♭ C B♭
C
B♭ C Dm B♭ C Dm
But may sinners vanish from the earth and the wicked be no more.
B♭ C Dm
Bless the LORD, my soul!
B♭ C Dm
Praise the LORD!
