VERSE 1

Dm
A servant came from Saul's old house
B♭ F
Named Ziba standing in the dust
Gm C Dm
The king asked if any kin remained
B♭
Of Jonathan's line in this land
Gm C B♭
A son with feet that could not walk
Gm C Dm
Living far away from the ark

CHORUS

B♭ C
The donkeys loaded with the bread
Dm
Two hundred loaves are spread
B♭ C
Raisins and fruit for the men
Dm
Wine for the faint in the wilderness then
B♭ C Dm C6 B♭
Everything that belongs to Mep-hi - bosheth
Gm Am7 Dm
Is now yours to claim and to possess

VERSE 2

Dm
David fled when Absalom rose
B♭ F
Ziba met him with a show
Gm Am Dm
He said the master stayed behind
C B♭
To take the kingdom from the mind
Gm C B♭
So the king gave all the estate
Gm C Dm
To Ziba who bowed before the great

CHORUS

B♭ C
The donkeys loaded with the bread
Dm B♭
Two hundred loaves are spread
C Dm
Raisins and fruit for the men
B♭
Wine for the faint in the wilderness then
C Dm C B♭
Everything that belongs to Mephibosheth
Gm Am Dm
Is now yours to claim and to possess

BRIDGE

B♭ C
But Mephibosheth came down low
Dm
His feet untrimmed and clothes worn
B♭ C
He said my servant lied to you
Dm B♭
He left me lame and without a clue
C Dm
I am like an angel's friend
Gm Am7 Dm B♭
Do whatever seems good in the end

CHORUS

C Dm
The donkeys loaded with the bread
B♭
Two hundred loaves are spread
C Dm
Raisins and fruit for the men
B♭
Wine for the faint in the wilderness then
C Dm C B♭
Everything that belongs to Mephibosheth
Gm Am Dm
Is now yours to claim and to possess

OUTRO

B♭ C Dm
So you and Zi - ba shall divide
B♭ C Dm
The land that they are to abide
B♭ C Dm
Divide the land and be done
B♭ Am Dm
The story of the servant son
