VERSE 1

G D
The day was long on the grassy hill, the sun was sinking low
G D
Five thousand hungry people and nowhere else to go
G
Send them to the villages, the twelve said, let them go and buy their bread
D
You give them something to eat, the Master simply said

VERSE 2

G
Andrew found a little boy with a basket at his side
D
Five barley loaves and two small fish was all he could provide
G
But what is that among so many? Andrew asked aloud
A D
Bring them here to me, said Jesus, and he looked out on the crowd

CHORUS

G
Five loaves and two fish
D
In the Master's hands
A D
He looked up to heaven, gave thanks and broke the bread
G
And every one was fed
D
They all ate and were satisfied
A D
Twelve baskets left besides

VERSE 3

G
Have the people sit, he said, there was plenty of green grass
D
He broke the bread and gave it out to every hand to pass
G
From hand to hand it did not end, and no one could say how
D
Gather up the leftover pieces, so that nothing is wasted now

BRIDGE

G
What is that among so many?
Bring them here to me
D
Little in a boy's two hands
Was plenty there for all to see

CHORUS

(repeat)

D

OUTRO
