VERSE 1

Em D
Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior
C G Am
But the son of a prostitute in that land
Em
His brothers drove him out of the father's house
C D Em
Saying you are the son of another woman

D
He fled to the land of Tob among outcasts
C G
Where worthless men gathered around him
Am Em
When Ammon made war upon Israel
C D Em
The elders of Gilead sought him out

VERSE 3

C G
They said come be our commander in battle
Am Em
And Jephthah asked why now in trouble
C D Em
If the Lord gives the enemy into my hand
C D Em
Then I shall be your head in Gilead

D
He sent messengers to the king of Ammon
C G
Arguing for the land of Israel
Am Em
But the king paid no heed to the message
C D Em
So Jephthah made a vow to the Lord

VERSE 5

Am Em
If you give the Ammonites into my hand
Am Em
Whoever comes out shall belong to God
Am Em
He struck down twenty towns in the valley
C D Em
A crushing blow that subdued the enemy

D
When he came home to Mizpah in triumph
C G
His daughter met him with tambourines and dance
Am Em
She was his only child in this world
C D Em
And he tore his clothes in deep sorrow

Am Em
Oh my daughter you have brought me to my knees
Am Em
I have opened my mouth to the Lord
Am Em
She said do to me as you have vowed
C D Em
Grant me two months to weep on the hills

OUTRO

C D Em
And so it became a custom in Israel
