VERSE 1

G C
Out on the hills by Bethlehem a ruddy shepherd boy
D C G
Kept his father's flock by night and sang his songs of joy
C
Seven brothers passed the prophet, tall and fine to see
D C
But the LORD looks at the heart, and the youngest one was he

C
Down in the Valley of Elah a giant cursed and roared
D C G
The soldiers stood there trembling, every hand upon a sword
C
A boy ran out with just a sling, a stone and nothing more
D C G
And the giant fell before him, for the battle belongs to the LORD

CHORUS

G/B C G D G
Shep-herd boy and gi-ant-sla-yer, harp-play-er and king
C G D
A heart that ran to God in every song he'd sing
C G D Em
He fell and he got up again, he wept and he believed
C D G
The LORD looks at the heart, and a broken heart's received

C
Up on a palace rooftop in the evening's fading light
D C G
A king took what was not his and hid it out of sight
C
Then Nathan stood before him and said, You are the man
D C G
And David fell before the LORD and wept with empty hands

BRIDGE

G Em C
Have mercy on me, O God
D
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow
Em C
Create in me a clean heart, O God
D
Renew a steadfast spirit within me

CHORUS

C G D G
Shepherd boy and gi-ant-sla-yer, harp-play-er and king
C G D
A heart that ran to God in every song he'd sing
C G D
He fell and he got up again, he wept and he believed
Em C D
The LORD looks at the heart, and a broken heart's received
