VERSE 1

G
Joseph was taken down to Egypt land
Em
Potiphar bought him from the Ishmaelites
C
The Lord was with him and he prospered
D
His master saw the favor of the Lord

VERSE 2

G
He put Joseph in charge of the house
Em
And entrusted all his wealth to care
C
The Lord blessed the field and the home
D
And Joseph was handsome and well built

PRE-CHORUS

C
After some time his master's wife
G
Took notice of him and spoke
Am
Come to bed with me she said
D
But he refused her with a voice

CHORUS

G Em
How could I do such a great evil
C D
And sin against God in this place
G Em
The Lord was with him in the prison
C D G
And showed him steadfast love

VERSE 3

Day after day she kept at him
Em
But he would not listen or lie
C
One day he came to do his work
D
She caught his cloak and screamed aloud

C
She told the men of the household
G
That he came to make sport of us
Am7
She kept his cloak until his master
D
Came home and heard her story

CHORUS

(repeat)

BRIDGE

His master burned with anger then
Em
And took him to the prison cell
C
Where the king's prisoners were held
D
And there he remained alone

OUTRO

G
The warden paid no attention
Em C
To anything under his care
Because the Lord was with him
D G
And gave him success in all
