VERSE 1

E♭ B♭/D
When Job prayed for his friends he stood
Cm7 Gm
The Lord restored his fortunes to his hand
A♭ E♭
He gave him twice as much as before
Cm7 B♭
A new beginning after the war

VERSE 2

E♭ B♭/D
His brothers and sisters came to his door
Cm7 Gm
They ate in his house and felt the floor
A♭ E♭
They consoled him over the trouble he saw
Cm7 B♭
Giving pieces of silver and gold rings to draw

CHORUS

E♭
He named the first Jemimah
B♭
The second Keziah
Cm
And the third K-eren-hap-puch
A♭ B♭
A beauty that is much

VERSE 3

E♭ B♭/D
Nowhere in all the land were they found
Cm7 Gm
Women as beautiful without a sound
A♭ E♭
In Job's daughters the light did break
Cm7 B♭
With an inheritance for their sake

E♭
He named the first Jemimah
B♭
The second Keziah
Cm
And the third K-eren-hap-puch
A♭ B♭ E♭
A beauty that is much

BRIDGE

A♭ B♭
They received an inheritance among their brothers
E♭ B♭/D Cm7
A gift of justice and gentle glories
A♭ B♭
The latter part of his life was blessed
A♭ B♭
More than the first and never less

CHORUS

(repeat)

OUTRO

A♭ B♭
He saw his children to the fourth generation
E♭
And died old and full of days
