Nothing Deserving Death

Acts 25:13; 25:23; 26:1–30; 26:30–32

Key E♭ · 75 BPM · 3/4

INTRO

E♭	E♭	E♭	Cm7
Cm7	A♭maj7	A♭maj7	E♭

VERSE 1

Some days later in Caesarea town
Cm7
The King and his sister arrived now
A♭
To pay their respects to the new governor
B♭ E♭
With great pomp they entered the hall of power

PRE-CHORUS

Paul was brought in at the order of Festus
Cm7
To speak his defense before the men
A♭
The King gave him permission to speak
B♭
And Paul stretched out his hand in the end

CHORUS

E♭
This man has done nothing deserving death
Cm7
Or imprisonment for the charges laid
A♭
He spoke of light and of the risen Lord
B♭
And they agreed that no guilt was weighed

VERSE 2

E♭
I saw a light brighter than the sun
Cm7
Blazing around me on the road to Damascus
A♭ B♭
The Lord said I am Jesus whom you persecute
Arise and stand on your feet, it was said

PRE-CHORUS

E♭
I was not disobedient to the vision
Cm7
I preached to Damascus and Jerusalem
A♭
To Israel and the Gentiles alike
B♭
That they should repent and turn to Him

CHORUS

E♭
This man has done nothing deserving death
Cm7
Or imprisonment for the charges laid
A♭
He spoke of light and of the risen Lord
B♭ A♭maj7
And they agreed that no guilt was weighed

INSTRUMENTAL

A♭maj7	E♭	E♭	A♭maj7
A♭maj7	E♭	E♭

BRIDGE

A♭
The King rose up with the governor
B♭
And Bernice and those who were seated
A♭
As they withdrew they spoke to one another
B♭
With words of truth that they believed

OUTRO

A♭ B♭
He could have been set free if he had not appealed
E♭
To Caesar's court in the end

OUTRO (INSTRUMENTAL)

E♭	Cm7	Cm7	A♭maj7
A♭maj7	E♭	E♭	E♭
E♭

Chords from the YuE2 score.