VERSE 1

B♭ Gm7
The thir-ty-sev-enth year of exile passed
E♭ B♭ F/A
In the twelfth month when hope arrived
Gm Dm
E-vil-Me-ro-dach became king of Babylon
E♭ Fsus4 F
And the heavy chains were lifted high
E♭ Gm
He showed favor to the captive king
E♭ Fsus4
Who sat in darkness for so long

CHORUS

F B♭ Dm E♭
He spoke kindly to him with grace
B♭/D Cm7 Dm E♭
Gave a seat of honor in that place
Gm B♭maj7/F
Above the thrones of other kings
E♭ B♭
Jehoiachin heard the sweet things

VERSE 2

F/A Gm B♭maj7/F
The prison clothes were taken away
E♭ B♭ F/A
Restored to his dignity that day
Gm Dm7
He ate regularly at the royal table
E♭ F
For the rest of his life
E♭ Gm Gm7/F
The daily allowance was provided
E♭ F
In the land where he was exiled

CHORUS

B♭ Dm E♭
He spoke kindly to him with grace
B♭/D Cm7 Dm E♭
Gave a seat of honor in that place
Gm F6
Above the thrones of other kings
E♭ B♭
Jehoiachin heard the sweet things

BRIDGE

E♭ Gm
From the shadows of the cell
E♭
To the light where the honor dwell
Gm
A glimmer of hope remains
E♭
In the memories of old days

OUTRO
