Sons of Dishon

Genesis 36:26; 36:20–21; 1 Chronicles 1:41; Deuteronomy 2:12–22

Key Dm · 83 BPM · 4/4

INTRO

| Dm | Dm | Dm | Dm |
| Dm |

VERSE 1

The land of Seir held the old ways
The Horite chiefs kept the mountain days
Lotan and Shobal stood the test
F
Zibeon and Anah were the best
C Dm
Dishon and Eshban stood tall who lived in the land
F C
Dishan was the last of the band
Dm
These were the sons of Seir the Horite
B♭
In the place that they called their site

CHORUS

Dm
Hemdan and Eshban stood tall
F C
Ithran and Keran heard the call
Gm
Sons of Dishon in the genealogy
Dm F
Names written in the history
C Gm
Before the Esauites took the land
B♭
They walked across the Seir land

VERSE 2

Dm
The descendants of Esau came near
They drove the old clans from the sphere
Wiped them out and settled in place
F
Just like Israel in that location
C
Thir-ty-eight years the men did fade
Dm
The hand of the Lord was in the shade
F C
To root them out until they perished
Dm
As the Lord had sworn and whispered

CHORUS

B♭
Hemdan and Eshban stood tall
Dm F
Ithran and Keran heard the call
C Gm
Sons of Dishon in the genealogy
Dm F
Names written in the history
C Gm
Before the Esauites took the land
B♭
They walked across the Seir land

BRIDGE

Dm B♭ C Dm B♭ C Dm
Anah had a son named Dishon
His lineage is not forgotten
Cherans and Kerans keep the name
Though the power slowly changed

OUTRO

B♭ Dm
They lived in Seir to this day
Under the shadow of the sway

INTERLUDE

| B♭ | Dm | Dm | Dm |
| Dm | Dm |