Cm7 Fsus4 F B♭
I remember Sunday mornings and the singing in the hall

How I walked among the people and I felt you over all

Now the house is very quiet and the nights are very long

And I search for you in silence where I used to find a song

CHORUS

As a deer longs for streams of water

So my soul longs for you, O God

My soul thirsts for God, for the living God
E♭ B♭
When shall I come and appear before God's face

VERSE 2

My tears have been my food day and night

And still the voices ask me where you are
F
I pour my heart out on the kitchen floor

I hold on to the memory of the light

CHORUS

As a deer longs for streams of water

Why are you cast down, my soul

And why do you groan within me

Hope in God, for I will praise him again
