C Dm
The seventh day the wine was bright
C Dm
The king commanded eunuchs to the light
C Dm
To bring the queen with royal crown
B♭
To show her beauty to the town

VERSE 2

C Dm
But Queen Vashti refused to come
C B♭
Her face against the king's command
C
The anger burned within his heart
Gm Am Dm
A crisis at the court apart

VERSE 3

B♭ C
He sought the wise who knew the times
Dm C
To judge the matter in the lines
B♭ C
For it was custom for the king
Gm Dm
To ask the laws on which he cling

VERSE 4

C B♭
Carshena Shethar Admatha
C
Tarshish Meres and Marsena
Gm Am B♭
With Memucan the seven men
C Dm
Holding the highest ranks again

VERSE 5

B♭ C
Memucan spoke before the throne
Dm C
The queen has wronged the king alone
B♭ C
But all the officials and the land
Gm Dm
Will see her refusal in the hand

VERSE 6

B♭ C
The women will despise their men
Dm C
And speak the words of her again
B♭ C
So let the decree be written out
Gm A Dm
To ban her from the king's account

VERSE 7

B♭ C
Give the position to a woman wise
Dm C
Who is better in his eyes
B♭ C
So all the women from the least
Gm A Dm
Will honor every husband's beast

VERSE 8

B♭ C
The advice pleased the king and all
Dm C
He did as Memucan did call
B♭ C
And wrote the law in Persia's book
Gm Dm
To seal the fate with iron look
