VERSE 1

C
An old man in Haran with his flocks and with his kin
B♭ Dm
Heard a voice that called him out to where he'd never been
C
Leave your land, your kindred, and your father's house
B♭ Dm
And go to the land I will show you
B♭ C
So Abram went, as the LORD had told him
B♭ C
With Sarai by his side and the long road in his eyes

VERSE 2

Dm C
The years went by in Canaan and the cradle still stood bare
B♭ Dm
Lord GOD, what will you give me
I remain childless
C
He brought him outside
B♭ Dm
And told the childless man to lift his weary eyes

CHORUS

C
Look up at the sky and count the stars
B♭
If you can count them
Dm
So shall your offspring be
Abram believed the LORD
C B♭ C Dm
And he credited it to him as righteousness

BRIDGE

C
Up the mountain walked a father with the son he loved
B♭ Dm
Here are the fire and the wood
But where is the lamb
C
God himself will provide the lamb
B♭ C Dm
And the two of them walked on together

C
Look up at the sky and count the stars
B♭
If you can count them
Dm
So shall your offspring be
Abram believed the LORD
C B♭ C Dm
And he credited it to him as righteousness
