VERSE 1

E♭ Cm Fm7
Taken from Jerusalem, a young man far from home
B♭7sus4
Babylon had golden halls and gods of wood and stone
E♭ Cm
They set the king's food on his table, poured the king's own wine
Fm7
But Daniel resolved in his heart
B♭7sus4 E♭
Not to defile himself

CHORUS

Cm
Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed
Giving thanks to his God
Fm7
Just as he had always done
B♭7sus4
Kings may rise and kings may fall
E♭ Cm
He kept on praying through it all

VERSE 2

E♭ Cm
The king dreamed of a statue made of gold and iron and clay
Fm7 B♭7sus4
A stone not cut by human hands came and broke it all away
E♭ Cm
Daniel blessed the God of heaven who knows what lies in the dark
Fm7
He changes times and seasons
B♭7sus4
He removes kings and sets up kings

VERSE 3

E♭ Cm
At Belshazzar's feast a hand wrote letters on the wall
Fm7 B♭7sus4
The cups of gold were shaking and the king began to fall
E♭ Cm
You have been weighed on the scales and found too light
Fm7 B♭7sus4
And the kingdom ended in the dark of that same night

CHORUS

E♭ Cm
Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed
Giving thanks to his God
Fm7
Just as he had always done
B♭7sus4
Kings may rise and kings may fall
E♭ Cm
He kept on praying through it all

BRIDGE

E♭ Cm
They threw him in the lions' den and sealed it with a ring
Fm7 B♭7sus4
And sleep fled from the palace, sleep fled from the king
E♭ Cm
At the first light of dawn the king got up and hurried to the lio
Fm7 B♭7sus4 E♭
My God sent his angel and shut the mouths of the lions
