VERSE 1

Jacob had twelve sons, but one he loved the best
Dm
The son of his old age, set apart from all the rest
B♭ C
He made a richly ornamented robe for him to wear
B♭ C
And his brothers couldn't speak a kind word to him there

VERSE 2

F
Out in the fields of Dothan they saw him coming on
Dm
Here comes that dreamer, let us kill him and be done
B♭ C
Reuben said don't shed his blood, just throw him in the pit
B♭ C
They stripped him of his robe and they dropped him down in it

CHORUS

F
Twenty pieces of silver
For their brother, their own flesh
Dm
On a caravan to Egypt
With the balm and gum and myrrh
B♭ C
And the boy who wore the robe
F
Was a slave upon the road

INTERLUDE

F	F	F	F
Dm	Dm	B♭	C
F

VERSE 3

They dipped the robe in goat's blood and they sent it home to
Dm
We found this, is it your son's, and the old man turned away
B♭ C
It is my son's robe, he cried, a wild animal has torn him
B♭ C
And he would not be comforted, the father went on mourning

CHORUS

F
Twenty pieces of silver
For their brother, their own flesh
Dm
On a caravan to Egypt
With the balm and gum and myrrh
B♭ C
And the boy who wore the robe
F
Was a slave upon the road

INTERLUDE

F	F	F	F
Dm	Dm	B♭	C
F	F

BRIDGE

Dm
Sold again in Egypt to Potiphar the guard
B♭
Far from his father's tent and the fields of home so far
Dm C
But the brothers did not see it and the boy did not yet know
B♭
The LORD was with Joseph
C F
Everywhere that he would go

OUTRO
