VERSE 1

D G
At Gibeon in the night the LORD came in a dream
D A
To a young king newly crowned and not yet sure of anything
G D A/C♯
Ask what I should give you, said the LORD to Solomon
Bm G A
And the king looked at his hands, still a boy and not a man

VERSE 2

D G
You were kind to David, my father, all his days
D A
And you set his son upon his throne to walk in all his ways
G D A/C♯
But I am only a young man, I don't know how to go out or come in
G A
Among a people so numerous they cannot be counted in

CHORUS

G D
Give your servant a listening heart
Bm
To judge your people
A
To discern between good and evil
G D
Not for gold and not for years
A D
Give me ears to hear

VERSE 3

G
It pleased the LORD that Solomon had asked for this alone
D A
Not for riches, not long life, not for enemies overthrown
G D A/C♯ Bm
I give you a heart so wise and discerning, said the LORD
G A
And what you did not ask for, riches and honor, I will pour

CHORUS

G D
Give your servant a listening heart
Bm
To judge your people
A
To discern between good and evil
G D
Not for gold and not for years
A G
Give me ears to hear

BRIDGE

Bm Bm
If you walk in my ways
D G
Keeping my statutes and my commandments
A
As your father David walked
G
I will lengthen your days

D
Give your servant a listening heart
G A
To discern between good and evil
G D
Give me ears to hear
