Salt and Light

Matthew 5:13–16

Key C · 115 BPM · 4/4

INTRO

| C | F G |

VERSE 1

C F G
A little pinch of salt makes the dinner taste so good
C F G
A little candle shines in the dark the way it should
F C Am
Jesus looked at all his friends sitting on the hill
Dm G
And he told them who they are and he tells us still

CHORUS

C
You are the salt of the earth
G
You are the light of the world
Am F G
A city set on a hill cannot be hidden
C G
Shine, shine, shine

VERSE 2

C F G
No one lights a lamp and puts it under a basket
Am C
They set it on a stand
F G
And it gives light to everyone in the house
F C Am
So hold your little light up high in your hand

CHORUS

(repeat)

BRIDGE

F C/E
Help your friend, share your bread
Dm C
Say a kind word, like Jesus said
F C/E
Let your light shine before others
Dm G
So that they may see your good works
And glorify your Father in heaven

OUTRO

C
You are the light of the world
G C
Shine, shine, shine
