B♭
What misery is mine, gathering fruit after harvest
Gm
Like gleaning the vineyard when the grapes are gone
B♭ Dm
Not a cluster left to eat, not one early fig
C Dm
The faithful have vanished from the land entirely

Not one upright person remains among us
They all lie in wait for blood in the dark
Gm
Each one hunts his own brother with a net
B♭ C Dm
Both hands are skilled at weaving evil tight

PRE-CHORUS

B♭ C
The official demands his price, the judge takes his bribe
Dm
The powerful dictate what they want to do
B♭ C
The best is like a briar, a hedge of thorns
Gm
Confusion falls upon them all today

CHORUS

Dm C
Who is a God like you, who pardons guilt
B♭ Gm
Passing over the transgression of his remnant
Dm C
You do not hold on to your anger forever
B♭ C Dm
For you delight in mercy, yes you do

VERSE 3

Put no trust in a neighbor or a friend
B♭ Gm
Guard your mouth even from the wife in your arms
A son treats his father with contempt
B♭ C Dm
A daughter rises against her mother now

B♭ C Dm
Enemies are the members of my own household
Trust is broken and the bonds are torn
B♭ C
But as for me, I will look to the LORD
Gm
I will wait for the God of my salvation

CHORUS

Dm C
Who is a God like you, who pardons guilt
B♭ Gm
Passing over the transgression of his remnant
Dm C
You do not hold on to your anger forever
B♭ C Dm
For you delight in mercy, yes you do
