VERSE 1

G D
I hate I despise your festivals
Em
Your solemn assemblies bring no delight
C G
Your burnt offerings I will not accept
Em
Your grain offerings give me no pleasure
C
Take away from me the noise of your songs
G D
I will not listen to the music of your harps
Em C
But let justice roll on like water
G D
And righteousness like an ev-er-flow-ing stream

CHORUS

Em
You carried Sikkuth your king
C G
And Kiyyun your images of the star
D
The star of your god you made for yourselves
Em C
And I will send you into exile beyond Damascus
G D
Says the LORD whose name is the God of hosts

VERSE 2

Em D C
Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings
G D
Those forty years in the wilderness house of Israel
Em
You carried Sikkuth your king again
C G
And Kiyyun your images you made to worship
D
You turned away to the host of heaven
Em C
Carrying the tent of Molech in your hands
G D
The star of the god Rephan you followed
Em C
Your idols of wood and stone you served

CHORUS

G
You carried Sikkuth your king
D G
And Kiyy-un your images of the star
D Em
The star of your god you made for yourselves
C
And I will send you into exile beyond Damascus
G D
Says the LORD whose name is the God of hosts

BRIDGE

Em D C
So I will send you into exile beyond Babylon
G D
Because you worshiped what your hands made
Em C
Your festivals are noise in my ear
G D
Your songs are silence to my heart

CHORUS

Em
You carried Sikkuth your king
C G
And Kiyyun your images of the star
D
The star of your god you made for yourselves
Em C
And I will send you into exile beyond Damascus
G D Em
Says the LORD whose name is the God of hosts

OUTRO

D C
Justice rolls like water now
G D
Righteousness flows like a stream
