VERSE 1

D♯m
I was breathing out threats against the church of the Way
B
Letters from the high priest, chains for those who pray
F♯
On the road to Damascus, noon, the sun overhead
C♯
A light from heaven flashed and I fell like the dead
D♯m
Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me
B
Who are you, Lord, tell me who I'm meant to see
F♯
I am Jesus, the one you have been fighting
C♯
Get up, go to the city, you'll be told what is right

CHORUS

D♯m B
On the road to Damascus I was blind
F♯ C♯
But I saw the light for the first time
D♯m B
Scales fell from my eyes
F♯ C♯
Now I walk the road of life

VERSE 2

D♯m
Three days I sat in the dark, no food, no drink
B
Couldn't see a thing, all I could do was think
F♯
Then Ananias came and laid his hands on me
C♯
Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me so you can see
D♯m
Something like scales fell off and I rose
B
Baptized in the name I had fought, now I know
F♯
The one I persecuted is the one who called my name
C♯
Chief of sinners, saved by grace, never the same

CHORUS

D♯m B
On the road to Damascus I was blind
F♯ C♯
But I saw the light for the first time
D♯m B
Scales fell from my eyes
F♯ C♯
Now I walk the road of life
