VERSE 1

D G
Zacchaeus was a little man
A D
A rich man, short and small
G
He could not see when Jesus came
A D
The crowd was much too tall
G
So he ran ahead, he ran ahead
A D
And climbed up in a tree
G D/F♯
Up in the leaves of the sycamore
A
Now Jesus I can see

CHORUS

D G A
Zacchaeus, hurry down
D G A
For today I must stay at your house
D G A
Zacchaeus, hurry down
G A D
He came to seek and to save what was lost

VERSE 2

G
He hurried down with a happy face
A D
He welcomed him with joy
G
The people grumbled, grumble, grumble
A D
What a sinful man
G
But Jesus went in through his door
A D
He did not stay away
G D/F♯
He loved the man that no one loved
A
And came to stay that day

CHORUS

(repeat)

VERSE 3

G
Zacchaeus stood up tall that day
A D
Half of all I own
G
I give it to the poor, he said
A D
To every hungry home
G
And if I cheated anyone
A D
I pay back four times more
G D/F♯
One, two, three, four, count it out
A
And open wide the door

BRIDGE

D G A D
Today salvation has come to this house
G A
Today, today, today
D G A D
Today salvation has come to this house
G A D
Clap your hands and say

CHORUS

G A
Zacchaeus, hurry down
D G A
For today I must stay at your house
D G A
Zacchaeus, hurry down
G A D
He came to seek and to save what was lost

OUTRO
