Keren-Happuch

Job 42:10–13; 42:14; 42:15; 42:16–17

Key Dm · 78 BPM · 6/8

INTRO

Dm ×10

VERSE 1

The LORD restored his fortunes once again
C/D Dm
Gave him twice as much as he had before
B♭ C B♭
His brothers and sisters came to his house
B♭6 C Dm
To console and comfort him in his pain

VERSE 2

C Dm B♭
Each gave him a piece of silver and gold
C Dm B♭
A ring from the hand of one who knew
C Dm B♭
The LORD blessed the latter part of his life
C Dm
More than the first he had known

CHORUS

B♭ C Dm
K-eren-hap-puch is the third of the daughters
B♭ C Dm
Named by the hand of God
B♭ C Dm
No women in the land were as beautiful
B♭ C Dm
As these three in his grace

VERSE 3

C Dm
He had seven sons and three daughters
B♭ C Dm
Born when his joy returned to him
B♭ C Dm
Jemimah first and Keziah second
B♭ C Dm
Then K-eren-hap-puch came after

CHORUS

B♭ C Dm
K-eren-hap-puch is the third of the daughters
B♭ C Dm
Named by the hand of God
B♭ C Dm
No women in the land were as beautiful
B♭ C Dm
As these three in his grace

BRIDGE

C Dm
Their father granted them an inheritance
B♭ C Dm
Among their brothers in the land
B♭ C Dm
A justice and generosity seen
B♭ C Dm
In the blessing of his house

OUTRO

B♭ C Dm
Job lived a hundred and forty years
B♭ C Dm
Saw his children to the fourth generation
B♭ C Dm
And so he died old and full of days
C/D Dm
In the peace of the Lord