VERSE 1

E♭ Cm7
Through the Negev they climbed to the land
E♭
Where the giants of Hebron stood tall
Ahiman Sheshai and Talmai
Cm7 A♭maj7
The descendants of Anak remained there
E♭
A single cluster of grapes
A♭maj7
Carried on a pole by two
E♭
Forty days they scouted the place
B♭/D Cm7 A♭maj7
And brought back the fruit of the land

PRE-CHORUS

B♭
It flows with milk and honey indeed
Cm Gm7 A♭maj7
But the cities are strong and the people great
B♭
The walls rise up to the sky
A♭maj7 B♭ E♭
And our hearts have melted in fear

CHORUS

Cm7
We saw the descendants of Anak
A♭maj7
The Nephilim from whom they came
B♭
In our own eyes we seemed like grasshoppers
A♭maj7 B♭ E♭
So we seemed to them we said

VERSE 2

The whole congregation wept that night
Cm7
Grumbling against Moses and Aaron
E♭
Why bring us here to fall by the sword
E♭maj7/D Cm7
Our wives and children become plunder
A♭maj7
If only we had died in the wilderness
E♭
Or back in Egypt we wished
A♭maj7
But one man stood with a different spirit
E♭ B♭/D Cm7
Caleb who followed wholeheartedly

CHORUS

E♭ E♭maj7/D
We saw the descendants of Anak
Cm7
The Nephilim from whom they came
A♭maj7 B♭
In our own eyes we seemed like grasshoppers
A♭maj7 B♭ E♭
So we seemed to them we said

BRIDGE

A♭maj7
Joshua cut off the Anakim
E♭
From Hebron Debir and Anab
A♭maj7
Devoting them to destruction
E♭
So none remained in the hill country
A♭maj7
Only in Gaza Gath and Ashdod
E♭
Did any of them survive

OUTRO

A♭maj7 B♭
But Caleb drove out the three
A♭maj7 B♭
Sheshai Ahiman and Talmai
A♭maj7 B♭
Hebron was called Ki-riath-ar-ba
A♭maj7 B♭ E♭
After the greatest among them
