VERSE 1

F7sus4 B♭6 Dm7
There's a wedding up in Cana on the third day of the week
Gm7 F7
The tables full of family and the music's at its peak
E♭7 Dm7 G7
But the servants start to whisper and the steward starts to frown
C7 F B♭6
The wine is running out before the sun is going down

VERSE 2

Dm7
His mother leans toward him, says they have no more wine
Gm7 F7
He tells her that his hour has not yet come, not yet the time
E♭7 Dm7 G7
But she turns to the servants with a quiet knowing nod
C7 F
Do whatever he tells you, and she leaves the rest to God

CHORUS

B♭6 Dm7
You have kept the good wine until now
Gm7 F7
Six stone jars filled to the brim somehow
E♭7 Dm7 G7 C7
Water poured and wine came out
F7 B♭ B♭6
You have kept the good wine until now

VERSE 3

Dm7 Gm7
Fill the jars with water, so they fill them to the top
F7 E♭7
Now draw some out and take it, and they don't spill a drop
Dm7 G7
The steward takes a sip of it and calls the bridegroom near
C7 F7
Everyone serves the good wine first, but the best is only here

CHORUS

B♭6 Dm7
You have kept the good wine until now
Gm7 F7
Six stone jars filled to the brim somehow
E♭7 Dm7 G7
Water poured and wine came out
C7 F7 B♭
You have kept the good wine until now

BRIDGE

E♭7
The first of his signs at Cana in Galilee
B♭
He revealed his glory for his friends to see
C7 F7 B♭
And his disciples believed in him

OUTRO

Gm7
You have kept the good wine
F7 E♭7 Dm7 G7
The good wine until now
