Down to the Jordan the Son of God came walking

John held him in the water as the river rolled along

As soon as Jesus was baptized, he came up out of the water

And behold, a voice from heaven said

This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased

So through baptism we were buried with him into death

In order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead

By the glory of the Father

We too might walk in newness of life

On the desert road from Jerusalem a chariot was turning

Philip told the good news about Jesus as they rode

Look, here is water

What is to keep me from being baptized

And he went on his way rejoicing down the road

CHORUS

(repeat)

To the very end of the age
