Father-in-Law of Midian

Exodus 2:15–21; 2:21–22; 3:1–3; 18:1–12; 18:13–26; Genesis 36:4–17

Key Dm · 80 BPM · 4/4

INTRO

Dm	Dm	Dm	Dm
Dm	B♭	B♭

VERSE 1

Dm
Moses fled from Pharaoh's hand
B♭ C Dm
To Midian where the flocks are kept
B♭
He sat beside the well and saw
F C
Seven daughters drawing water up

VERSE 2

Dm
Reuel the priest of Midian
B♭ C Dm
Asked why they came so early today
B♭ F
An Egyptian rescued them he said
Dm
And watered their flock that day

VERSE 3

Moses agreed to stay with him
B♭ C Dm
Who gave his daughter Zipporah
B♭ F
She bore a son named Gershom
C
In a foreign land far away

VERSE 4

Dm
Jethro heard of God's great work
B♭ C Dm
Of Israel led out of Egypt
B♭ F
He came to Moses in the wild
C
With Zipporah and their sons

VERSE 5

B♭ Dm
Blessed be the Lord he cried
F C
Who rescued them from Pharaoh's sword
B♭ Dm
Now I know the Lord is greater
C
Than all the gods of the world

VERSE 6

Dm
Moses judged the people all day
B♭ C Dm
From morning light to evening dark
B♭ F
His fa-ther-in-law said to him
C
You will wear yourself out in this task

VERSE 7

Dm
Look for men who fear the Lord
B♭ C Dm
Trustworthy men who hate a bribe
B♭ F
Appoint them over thousands and hundreds
C
To judge the people in their right

VERSE 8

B♭ Dm
Moses listened to his counsel
F C
And chose capable men from Israel
B♭ Dm
They judged the cases every day
C
And went home in peace and silence

OUTRO

B♭ C Dm
Blessed be the Lord our God

OUTRO (INSTRUMENTAL)

Dm	Dm	B♭	B♭	×2
Dm	Dm			