VERSE 1

Dm B♭
Taken from Jerusalem, dropped in Babylon
F C
New name, new tongue, they want the old me gone
Dm
Kings table spread with the richest wine and meat
B♭ F
Daniel made up his mind, that is food I won't eat
C Dm
Asked the chief official, give us ten days of greens
B♭ F
Water and vegetables, then see what it means
C Dm
If we look worse than the boys who eat the king's food
B♭ F
Do what you want, but give us ten days to prove

CHORUS

C B♭
I'm in Babylon but I'm not of it
They can change my name but they can't change my heart
I won't bow down, I won't be bought
In Babylon, I still belong to God

Ten days later, look at them, they shine
Healthier and stronger than the ones who drank the wine
God gave them knowledge, wisdom, every skill in a book
Daniel understood the visions and the dreams they took
The king put them to the test with every question he had Ten times better than the magicians in his land
So when the world says blend in, take the easy road
Remember four young men who would not let go

CHORUS

I'm in Babylon but I'm not of it
They can change my name but they can't change my heart
I won't bow down, I won't be bought
In Babylon, I still belong to God
