VERSE 1

C Dm
Eliphaz the Temanite came from afar
B♭ C Dm
With Bildad and Zophar to meet you there
B♭ C Dm
They looked from a distance, could not recognize you
B♭ C Dm
Wept aloud, tore robes, tossed dust to the sky

VERSE 2

C Dm
They sat with you on the ground for seven days
B♭ C Dm
And seven nights, no word spoken in praise
B♭ C Dm
Your suffering was great, they saw your pain
B♭ C Am7 Dm
Silent witnesses to your deep distress

CHORUS

B♭ C Dm
Seven days si - lent, no word was said
B♭ C Dm
Watching the sorrow that you have spread
B♭ C Dm
Your friends are here, though their words may fail
B♭ C Dm
To comfort the soul in the dark and cold

VERSE 3

C Dm
Then Eliphaz spoke, who can hold back
B♭ C Dm
When trouble strikes and the body is weak
B♭ C Dm
You strengthened the weak, held up the stumbling
B♭ C Am7 Dm
But now you are dismayed, your spirit crumbling

VERSE 4

B♭ C Dm
He spoke of a vision, a spirit passed by
B♭ C Dm
A whisper in the dark, a voice from the sky
B♭ C Dm
Who ever perished being innocent
B♭ C Am7 Dm
Where were the upright ever destroyed

CHORUS

(repeat)

VERSE 5

C Dm
He accused you of sin, of taking pledges
B♭ C Dm
Of refusing water, of hiding treasures
B♭ C Dm
But God spoke from the storm, rebuked them all
B♭ C Am7 Dm
For not speaking rightly of His own will

OUTRO

B♭ C Dm B♭ C Dm
Offer seven bulls, seven rams as well
B♭ C Dm C Dm
Job prays for you, God forgives your soul
