VERSE 1

E♭ B♭
Seventeen with a head full of dreams
Gm F
Sheaves in the field bowing down to me
E♭ B♭
Wore my father's robe in the morning sun
Gm F
Didn't see the anger I'd begun
E♭ Gm
Down in a dry pit under the sky
F
Twenty pieces of silver and a caravan goodbye

PRE-CHORUS

E♭ Gm
A slave in a stranger's house
B♭ F
A prisoner in chains
E♭
But the LORD was with Joseph
Gm F
Through the long and lonely days

CHORUS

E♭
You intended evil against me
B♭
But God intended it for good
Gm
Every pit and every prison
F
Brought me where I stood
E♭
Now I see it from the palace
Gm
What I never understood
F
You intended evil against me
E♭
But God intended it for good

VERSE 2

B♭
Pharaoh dreamed of cattle and of seven ears of grain
Gm F
Seven years of plenty, then seven years of pain
E♭ Gm
They called me from the prison to stand before the throne
F
And all the land of Egypt was put under my hand alone

BRIDGE

E♭ Gm
Brothers came for bread and bowed down to the ground
F
Just like in the dream, the sheaves had all come round
E♭ Gm
I am Joseph, your brother
F
Come closer to me
E♭ Gm
Do not be distressed
F E♭
God sent me ahead of you to preserve life

CHORUS

You intended evil against me
B♭
But God intended it for good
Gm
Every pit and every prison
F
Brought me where I stood
E♭
Now I see it from the palace
Gm
What I never understood
F
You intended evil against me
But God intended it for good
