VERSE 1

Dm B♭
What did you go to the wild to see
C Dm
A reed shaken by the passing wind
B♭
Or a man in soft and costly clothes
C Dm
Those who wear such splendor dwell in palaces
B♭
But what did you go there to find
C Dm
A prophet, yes, and far more than that
B♭
Behold, I send my messenger ahead
C Dm
Who will prepare your way before you

CHORUS

B♭ C Dm
No one born of women is greater than John
B♭ C Dm
Yet the least in the kingdom is greater than he
B♭ C Dm
This generation is like children in the square
B♭ C Dm
Calling out to one another in vain

B♭
They sat in the marketplace calling out
C Dm
We played the flute and you did not dance
B♭
We sang a dirge and you did not weep
C Dm
John came eating no bread or wine
B♭
You said he has a demon within
C Dm
The Son of Man came eating and drinking
B♭
You said a glutton and a drunkard
C Dm
A friend of tax collectors and sinners

CHORUS

(repeat)

Since they had not been baptized by him
