VERSE 1

Elijah stood before King Ahab, said no dew and no rain
Elijah stood before King Ahab, said no dew and no rain
C
Then the ravens brought him bread and meat, morning and evening again

VERSE 2

Down in Zarephath a widow had one handful of flour
Down in Zarephath a widow had one handful of flour
C Gm
But the jar did not run out and the oil kept pouring every hour

VERSE 3

How long will you keep limping between two opinions, he said
Four hundred fifty prophets danced and shouted till the day was dead
C
He soaked the wood three times with water, filled the trench up to the brim
Gm D7
Then the fire of the LORD came down and licked it up for him

CHORUS

The LORD, he is God
Gm
The LORD, he is God
C
Fire fell on Carmel and the people cried
Gm
The LORD, he is God

VERSE 4

D7
Then he ran from Jezebel and lay down underneath a broom bush
Gm
Said, Enough, LORD, take my life; I am no better than my fathers
But an angel touched him, get up and eat, a loaf on burning stones
C
Forty days and forty nights he walked to Horeb all alone

BRIDGE

Not in the wind
Not in the earthquake
D7
Not in the fire
But the sound of a little whisper
What are you doing here, Elijah?
Gm
C
The LORD, he is God
Gm
The LORD, he is God
D
Fire fell on Carmel and the people cried
The LORD, he is God

OUTRO

Gm
A chariot of fire and horses of fire
He went up to heaven in a whirlwind
My father! My father!
